Day 1: Journey Begins to Bismarck, ND

Today is a travel day. Your tour director will ensure your journey is entertaining and will point out highlights along the way.

Day 2: Bismarck, ND to Medora, ND

Arriving in Center, ND, at BNI Coal Ltd, there is a mining tour where you will see coal being extracted from the pit of a surface mine, a dragline digging, how the reclamation process of the land works, and more. As you go to Medora, you'll stop at a Badlands Overlook for viewing and picture taking. This afternoon, tour the Chateau de Mores State Historic Site, the 26-room home of Antone de Vallombrosa, a successful rancher and businessman who started a new town named Medora after his wife.

Day 3: Medora, ND

You'll enter the Theodore Roosevelt National Park today and stop at the Painted Canyon Visitor Center. Later, at the North Dakota Cowboy Hall of Fame, you can immerse yourself in the exciting story of the plains horse culture and experiences of the Native Americans, homesteaders, ranchers, and more. Then you'll enjoy the Teddy Roosevelt Show, where you'll hear the dramatic legend of Medora's larger-than-life Rough Rider. This evening includes the ever-popular Pitchfork Steak Fondue, where your delicious entree is grilled western-style with pitchforks! After dinner, a Behind the Scenes Tour of the theater to see what it takes to produce the Greatest Show in the West! The evening concludes with the Medora Musical Show at the Burning Hills Amphitheater, with a bit of history, a little humor, and a lot of Western spirit.

Day 4: Medora ND to Bismarck, ND

Back at the ampitheatre this morning, you'll be inspired by a Gospel Brunch and Show featuring a toe-tapping gospel revue and of course great food! After brunch you'll tour more of the stunning Teddy Roosevelt National Park. Later, you'll travel the Enchanted Highway, lined with unique larger than life sculptures. Stops for viewing and pictures will be made.

Day 5: Bismarck, ND to Home

In Watertown, explore at your leisure, the famous Terry Redlin Center, home to over 150 original art pieces. You'll arrive home this evening.
