

ESCAPE THE ORDINARY

Short Weekend Getaway

October 29 - 30, 2022

Marshall, MN Departure Only

Day 1: Marshall, MN to Eagan, MN

Your day begins with a self-guided tour of the acclaimed Fagen Fighters WWII Museum. Home to a collection of pristine, fully operational active aircraft and vehicles from World War II, it also features sculptures, interactive multimedia displays, and more. It will give you a rare look into the lives and legacy of the Greatest Generation. You'll enjoy some free time at the Twin Cities Premium Outlets for some shopping before a great dinner at Clive's Roadhouse. The evening includes a performance at the Ames Center of "Plowin' Thru" by the Church Basement Ladies. You'll love this performance as the ladies don their polyester pantsuits and sing, dance, and laugh through this hilarious and touching new musical!

Day 2: Eagan, MN to Marshall, MN

This morning begins at the Como Park Zoo and Conservatory. View the four different rooms at the Conservatory to see the stunning gardens, or if you prefer, you are welcome to visit the zoo. This afternoon at the Orpheum Theatre, catch a matinee performance of the award-winning production of "Cats." This record-breaking musical has captivated audiences in over 30 countries and 15 languages, and people are rediscovering this beloved musical.
