

54th ANNUAL CRANBERRY FESTIVAL

September 23 - 25, 2027

Day 1: Journey Begins to Onalaska, WI

Your Midwest adventure begins this afternoon as you arrive in the charming river community of Trempealeau, Wisconsin, where scenic beauty and local flavor set the tone for the days ahead. Settle into the relaxed pace of Wisconsin wine country with a visit to Elmaro Vineyard, a picturesque destination surrounded by rolling countryside. Raise a glass during a delightful wine tasting featuring a tempting selection of wines perfectly complemented by an assortment of cheeses and cured meats served on a beautiful charcuterie tray. It's an inviting introduction to the regional flavors and warm hospitality that make this corner of Wisconsin so special.

Day 2: Onalaska, WI

This morning, it's off to Warrens, Wisconsin, for the much-anticipated 54th Annual Cranberry Festival—one of the Midwest's most colorful celebrations of this beloved little red berry. Warrens comes alive with thousands of visitors, festive aromas, local treasures, and plenty of opportunities to experience the cranberry in wonderfully creative ways. Spend the day exploring the festival's many attractions. Sample delicious foods featuring cranberries, browse a bustling flea market and antiques event, and wander through an impressive arts and crafts area featuring more than 500 craft booths. You'll also have the opportunity to experience a fascinating cranberry marsh tour, offering a closer look at the fields and farming traditions behind this Wisconsin specialty. With so much to see, taste, and discover, the festival is a true celebration of Wisconsin's agricultural heritage and small-town spirit. As evening arrives, the scenery changes from cranberry marshes to the majestic Mississippi River. Step aboard the La Crosse Queen Dinner Cruise for a relaxing journey along the river. Enjoy a delicious buffet-style dinner as the river landscape unfolds around you, with peaceful waters, scenic shorelines, and the golden glow of evening creating a memorable finale to a full day of exploration.

Pricing Per Person

Double	$ 873
Triple	$ 808
Quad	$ 775
Single	$1,071

2 Breakfasts

Activity Level: Active Traveler

BOOK & PAY IN FULL BY MAY 26TH SAVE $75

*For Bookings Made After 6/21/27
Availability Not Guaranteed*

*A Bushel of Fall Fun
& a Splash of Cranberry!*

Day 3: Onalaska, WI to Home

Today, your journey takes you across the beautiful bluff country to Lanesboro, Minnesota, where rolling hills, winding roads, and picturesque farms provide a scenic backdrop for a glimpse into a simpler way of life. Experience a Bluffscape Amish Tour, featuring stops at four Amish farms accompanied by a knowledgeable step-on guide. At each stop, discover the craftsmanship and traditions that have been passed down through generations. Explore farms and shops filled with beautifully handcrafted treasures, including exquisite wood furniture, handmade quilts, woven baskets, leather goods, and more. It's a fascinating opportunity to meet local craftspeople, see their work firsthand, and perhaps find a one-of-a-kind keepsake to bring home. With the sights, flavors, and traditions of the Upper Midwest fresh in your memory, your three-day adventure concludes this evening as you make your way home.

Southwest Tour and Travel, 1500 Travis Road, Marshall, MN 56258 * 800-669-1309 * www.swtourandtravel.com